

Insurance Coverage

Courtesy of Nationwide Insurance

Types of Coverage:
Full Coverage	Policy includes comprehensive, liability, and collision.
Comprehensive (Non-Accident)	Coverage for incidents not directly related to an auto crash (ie: Weather Damage, Fire or Theft).
Liability (Accident)	Coverage to help pay for damage to another person's car from an accident you cause.
Collision (Accident)	Coverage to repair/replace your vehicle if it's damaged or destroyed in an accident with another car, regardless of who is at fault.